COMMON ORDER:

After elaborate arguments, the learned Counsel for the petitioners seeks permission of the Court to withdraw the writ petitions to enable the respective petitioners to avail statutory remedy available under Section 76 of the Andhra Pradesh Co-operative Societies Act, 1964 against the impugned proceedings. Permission is accorded.

2. Accordingly, all the writ petitions are dismissed as withdrawn giving liberty to the petitioners to file appeals before the Cooperative Tribunal. On such appeals being filed, they shall be considered and disposed of in accordance with law without raising the objection of limitation.

JUSTICE C. V. RAMULU
